IN THIS ISSUE

Rocky Mountain Husbandman
Newspaper, White Sulpher Springs,
MT - Marriages, Butler through
Potter..... 13

This issue continues with the marriage information compiled by Donna Wahlberg from the Rocky Mountain Husbandman, 1875-1889. The Rocky Mountain Husbandman was a publication devoted mainly to agriculture development, founded by R. N. Sutherlin at Diamond City, Meagher County, in November, 1875. The Husbandman was later published in Great Falls.

Donna Wahlberg, a long-time member and volunteer of the Great Falls Genealogy Society, has spent hundreds of hours at the Cascade County Historical Society indexing the Rocky Mountain Husbandman, recording the births, deaths and marriages found therein. She has generously shared her indices with the Society and has allowed us to publish it in the Treasure State Lines.

Donna has previously been a Research Volunteer at GFGS, providing her expertise on genealogical and historical research to GFGS members and clients. She previously authored So Be It, a retrospective on local mining camps, and is well-known for her considerable expertise in Little Belt mining history. She has also published materials on small cemeteries in local mining communities, indexed many years of the Belt Valley Times, and indexed early Cascade County Coroner Registers. This list of accomplishments is not all-inclusive, as she has shared her considerable knowledge in other projects. She also volunteered her time to help GFGS inventory Cascade County records in 2005.
